Dear Gerry -

Thanks for your recent e-mail. As Labour in Kentrenshire we have opposed & campaigned against the SNP/Liberal led Council's decision to cut back the free school transport available to local children. I have myself marched with Johnstone parents & walked with them to demonstrate the risks of the proposed route to St Benedicts. I know that Jim Sheridan, my colleague who has represented Houston; Bridge of Weir opposes these SNP/Liberal cuts as well. The proposed changes are not due to come in until August - be assured that I will continue with my colleagues to work to reverse the Council's school buses cuts plan in the weeks & months ahead.

Warm regards,

Jonathan.
